

Emergency Traffic Control

Here is a communication from our fellow CARS member Chad Cossey, KM6MG. He is also the Emergency Services Coordinator at Calaveras County OEM San Andreas. In that capacity he has forwarded a website that deals with traffic control especially during emergency situations. Many of us engage in emergency services as ham operators and sometime are called on to fulfill other rolls other than working the radio. Here is your opportunity to learn about handling real traffic. For those interested:

<https://www.respondersafety.com/Resources/Roadway-Safety-Teaching-Topic-Packages-For-Instructors.aspx>