

Calaveras Animal Disaster Services

CADS lines up and prepares to depart on the November 21st exercise in which Calaveras Amateur Radio Society provided communications at different evacuation points along the route. CADS familiarized themselves to the roads in the area of West Point, Railroad Flat, Mountain Ranch. The scenario given to the team was to a fire disaster in which they aided in rescuing and transporting displaced animals, and pets to a safe area to be cared for.