

New Tower Under Construction At Fowler Repeater Site

After our Tower suffered catastrophic wind damage last Winter, work has begun on its replacement. The photos below document the progress being made, we are all anxiously waiting the final placement of our two meter antenna on the tower. I'm sure the reception reports that will be received will show a marked improvement in the coverage area.

Photos Courtesy Of Ken Sanders AE6LA