

Editors Note

The President's Corner message was sent via email to members of the Calaveras Amateur Radio Society. A copy of the email is listed below, there are two pages to the President's message scroll down to the bottom of page one and you should see an icon to proceed to page 2. There will be a presentation by one of our members Mark Price during the business meeting.