

Antenna Building Workshop

That's-a-hot

Kathy is that mm or inches?

CARS members joined in today at the Murphy's Fire Station training center and successfully constructed several 2m copper j-pole antennas. Between coffee, muffins, and socialization the group managed to produce tuned and functional j-poles which should last 20+ years. Thank you to all involved for a nice club activity.

Additional pics from K6AAN:

